

LEARN FOR Free

If you're always pursuing lifelong learning like us DREAMERS, then take a look at these great resources we live by!

"Youtube UNIVERSITY" (Youtube.com) Watch lectures and videos about astronomy, business, philosophy, mathematics and more. If a particular area of study interests you, subscribe to its channel so that you'll never miss an interesting video.

TED Talks (ted.Com) have gained popularity over the years; however, ted began in 1984 and stands for technology, entertainment and design. It's a global community where new and interesting ideas are exchanged through short talks given by leading experts and professionals. Topics range from science and technology, explanations to how to be happier.

iTunes U (Free for ios) Features a variety of courses, lectures, etc. From leading universities for free or a small fee. If you see a course that interests you, subscribe to it and the content will load into your iTunes library automatically.

GOT A LONG COMMUTE? Download a podcast from iTunes. Learn a language, get the scoop on historical and current events or get tips to help you sharpen your business acumen.

DON'T FORGET THE LIBRARY IS A SUPER valuable RESOURCE!

